

RESIDENCY & REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

<http://www.infoplease.com/ipa/A0781452.html>

US Supreme Court on 3/21/72 declared lengthy requirements for voting in state and local elections unconstitutional and that 30 days was an ample period.

Days Required for:	Number of States
	Resident	Register	Either
0	0	3	3
>0	19	45	48
>=20	18	33	40
30	16	16	27

State	Resident	Register	Max	Residency requirement
Alabama		10	10	No durational residency requirement. 10-day registration requirement. In-person registration by 5 P.M., eleven days before election date.
Alaska		30	30	30-day registration requirement.
Arizona		29	29	29-day registration requirement.
Arkansas		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
California		15	15	15-day registration requirement.
Colorado	30	29	30	30-day residency requirement. 29-day registration requirement.
Connecticut		14	14	No durational residency requirement. Registration deadline 14th day before election by mail, 7 days in person; registration and party enrollment deadline by 12 noon the day before primary in person, 5 days by mail.
Delaware		20	20	No durational residency requirement. 20-day registration requirement.
District of Columbia		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Florida		29	29	No durational residency requirement. 29-day registration requirement before national election; 29-day registration requirement before first and second state primary.
Georgia		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Hawaii		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Idaho	30	25	30	30-day residency requirement. May register 25 days prior to any election with County Clerk. Individual may also register on election day at polling place.
Illinois	30	27	30	30-day residency requirement. 27-day registration requirement.
Indiana	30	29	30	30-day residency requirement. 29-day registration requirement.
Iowa		11	11	No durational residency requirement. 10-day registration requirement. In-person registration by 5 P.M., 11 days before election date, 10 days for statewide primary and general elections.
Kansas		15	15	15-day registration requirement.
Kentucky	28		28	28-day residency requirement.
Louisiana		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Maine			0	No durational residency requirement.
Maryland			0	No durational residency requirement.
Massachusetts		20	20	No durational residency requirement. 20-day registration requirement.
Michigan	30		30	30-day residency requirement.
Minnesota	20	0	20	Permits registration and voting on election day with approved ID; 20-day residency requirement.
Mississippi	30	30	30	30-day residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Missouri		29	29	No durational residency requirement. Must be registered by the fourth Wednesday prior to election.
Montana	30	30	30	30-day residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Nebraska		28	28	No durational residency requirement. Registration deadline is third Friday prior to election.
Nevada	30	30	30	30-day residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
New Hampshire		0	0	No durational residency requirement. 10-day registration requirement. Individual may also register on election day at polling place.
New Jersey	30	29	30	30-day residency requirement. 29-day registration requirement.
New Mexico		28	28	No durational residency requirement. 28-day registration requirement.
New York	30		30	30-day residency requirement.
North Carolina	30	25	30	30-day residency requirement. 25-day registration requirement.
North Dakota	30		30	No voter registration. 30-day residency requirement to vote in election.
Ohio	30	30	30	30-day residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Oklahoma		25	25	No durational residency requirement. 25-day registration requirement.
Oregon		21	21	Must register by close of business day of registering agencies (which varies), 21st day before the election.
Pennsylvania	30	30	30	30-day residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Rhode Island		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
South Carolina		30	30	No durational residency requirement. Registration certificate not valid for 30 days, but if you move within the state you can vote in old precinct during the 30 days.
South Dakota		15	15	No durational residency requirement. 15-day registration requirement.
Tennessee		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Texas		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement.
Utah	30	15	30	30-day residency requirement. 15th and 18th day before election registration in person. Postmarked 30 days before election if registering by mail.
Vermont		10	10	Administrative cut-off date for processing registration applications is second Saturday before the election, by 12 noon.
Virginia		29	29	No durational residency requirement. 29-day registration requirement.
Washington		30	30	30-day residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement. Individual may also register in person no later than 15 days before election.
West Virginia		21	21	No durational residency requirement. 21-day registration requirement.
Wisconsin	10	0	10	10-day residency requirement. Individual may also register on election day at polling place.
Wyoming		30	30	No durational residency requirement. 30-day registration requirement. Individual may also register on election day at polling place.